Dear Members,

Since this is the sesquicentennial year for Iowa, there are many special things planned statewide. Try to take in as many as you can. I wonder if our forefathers thought the country would ever be what it is today. The changes in the past 50 years is mind-boggling, but the changes in the past 150 years. . . The Morman Trail is being retraced this summer and next. It will be traveling thru the area in a few weeks. The train will be making several overnight stops in or near the county. Go outside some night and imagine just how dark and scary their journey must have been. If most of us today had to do the same thing, we would probably perish right where we are.

We still need several cemeteries in the county read so they can be published. If you'd like to help, please let us know. I have appointed a committee to plan classes this fall to teach genealogy to beginners and any one needing help. Watch the newsletter for dates and times. As Sue pointed out in the last newsletter, we need help! Our society will only be as good as those willing to give of their time. We'd like some input, both good and the bad. Our society will only be as good as those willing to give of their time. Let us know where we can improve and please make suggestions how they can be implemented. No feeling will be hurt; you can even send them to me anonymous.

I've been to one family reunion this summer and picked up the marriage certificate of my great-grandparents for 1897. Another one is soon and I print a booklet of memories for them every year. All the cousins write about visiting grandparents or any special memory they have about growing up. This year I asked them to write about how their parents met, what their wedding was like, etc. Then I asked them to write the same thing about themselves. I'm sure i'll have several good memories to pass on to the next generation. You might try the same things with your own families. I can make for fascinating reading and does break the ice at the reunions. Have a good summer!
