"NOW, HERE'S THE REST OF THE STORY"

Do you remember this nursery rhyme from your childhood? "Mary had a little lamb. Its fleece was white as snow; and everywhere that Mary went the lamb was sure to go."

There really was a Mary and a little lamb. Mary was Mary Sawyer of Sterling, Mass. According to Ruth Hopfmann of Sterling Historical Society, the story of Mary and her lamb dates back to 1816 when Mary's lamb followed her to school one day.

Mary hid the lamb under her desk. All went well until Mary was called to the front of the class for a recitation. The lamb again followed and was banished to a nearby shed until dismissal.

Visiting the school that day was young John Roulstone, who commemorated Mary's adventure in three verses. Fourteen years later, Sara Josepha Hale, a magazine editor included Roulstone's poem in a booklet of poetry and added several verses of her own.

Fleece from the lamb, it is said, was used to knit two pairs of stockings. Those stockings were unraveled by Mary Sawyer herself in 1883 when, in a fundraising project aimed at saving Boston's Old South Church, she sold cards wrapped with the yarn and telling the story of the verse.

Today Mary and her lamb live on, not only in the verse but in a statue of the two that stands in the town common.

Childhood offers many memories. Here is an exercise in nostalgia for you. Once a week, write down a memory that is dear to you. In years to come, it will bring you much pleasure and provide a keepsake for your descendants. (this is copied from NW Iowa Root Diggers newsletter in LeMars IA)

To go along with this idea—why don't you send your memories to the society and I will print them in future newsletters. I like to read articles that concern people I have heard of or that tell me more about this area. You never know your memory may be just the clue someone else is looking for.

As you can tell this newsletter is bigger than usual because it has the 1999 edition of the Surname Index and Surname List. This will be the only time it is published this year but additions and correction will be done so that in the year 2000 it will be bigger and better.

The Society received a profit-share check from IGS in January for over $200. For six months of sales. I recently sent the WPA Grave Registration in to IGS so it will be available soon. 1870 Federal Census will be sent in sometime this Spring.

HOPE YOU ENJOY THIS NEWSLETTER
