Editor's Note: Family lore has long held that Mary G. Quirk was a good deal older than here husband, Patrick Augustus Casey. Using census records is likely that 'Gus' was born in 1858. It is likely that Mary's correct birth year is 1853 based on the birth years for her older siblings and whereabouts of the family during those years.

Notes (Continued)

2. Ref. death of Mary G. Quirk as cited by the transcription of her obituary as transcribed by Jean Latimer Casey in a letter to John A. Casey, dated 1 Dec 1973.

'Mrs. Augustus Casey died at her home Sunday afternoon (January 21 [20], 1935), after an illness of five months.

Mary G. Quirk was born in Sand Springs, Feb. 25, 1856. She lived there 'til her marriage to A. Casey, after which she moved to Grand Junction, her husband's home. She came to Mason City 48 years ago (1887). They had celebrated their 50th anniversary Sept, (23rd) 1934.

She is survived by a brother, John Quirk of Mitchell, S. Dak. She was preceded in death by two daughters in infancy. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at St. Joseph's church.
