

Joe Regenberg Is Sent to Training School for Boys

Joe Regenberg, 16 years old, son of Justice of the Peace George Regenberg of Moline, was sentenced to the St. Charles training school for boys by Judge Larson in the county court late yesterday.

Regenberg was arrested last week on a charge of stealing a radio set and $8 from a Moline home. He confessed to the police and was taken into the county court, where he was paroled to the police matron.

Yesterday Mrs. Salisbury, police matron, asked the police to arrest the youth stating that "he did not want to reform." He was arrested at noon and taken to Rock Island.
