

MATLOCK ITEMS

Fritz Regenberg was badly hurt by a span of colts running away with him & throwing him from the buggy.

The Alton Democrat
Saturday morning, June 13, 1891

Fritz Ragenberg was thrown from his buggy some time ago and hurt one hand so bad, that he will have one finger amputated.

The Alton Democrat
April 1, 1893

The German church in Wheeler township, Lyon County, was filled Tuesday with people to hear the funeral sermon of old Mr. Ragenberg. Fritz Ragenberg, a highly respected farmer, living near Matlock, recently was thrown from his buggy, on his way home from George, and sustained injuries which led to his death.

The Alton Democrat
April 18, 1893