

Love, Eva

P.S. It was interesting to find you had the picture of Ude Uden and Frank Roth, etc. already. I have a large picture like that. (A big one) The interesting thing is that that picture was taken in my grandfather's garage —my mother's dad was Jacob Bruns and he owned that garage —he sold cars in George for years and when he retired, his sons, my uncles (brothers to my mother) took over the business. After they retired, no new car factory would give a dealership to a small town like ours anymore.

Gene Swalve loaned these two pictures. I believe the one is probably pictures in the Roth Buick Garage. The men are Frank Roth, Henry Schmidt, Charley Hill, Ude Uden and Homer Bodum.
