

Second Important Emigration to Pella

The largest number of arrivals from Holland came to Pella in the summer and fall of 1849. The fact that these newcomers brought considerable gold with them meant much to the struggling colony, where practically all the money brought in the "Iron Chest" had been expended. Below we give the names of those who arrived in that year:

Andel, van C.	Boer, den Elizabeth
	Boer, den Jan
Baay, Cornelus	Boer, den Cornelia
Baay, Pietje
Berkhout, J.	Bouman, Adrianus
Berkhout, J. Mrs.	Bouman, Ads. Mrs.
	Bouman, Jacob L.
Bezemer, Arie	Boogaard, Arie
Bezemer, Arie Mrs.	Boogaard, Arie Mrs.
Bezemer, Gerrit	Boogaard, Nicholaas
	Boogaard, Herman
Beuzemkum, van
Bergsma, Jelle	Bousquet, A. E. Dudok
	Bousquet, Henrietta M. Mrs.
Bikker, Gerrit	Bousquet, Pierre Henri
	Bousquet, John J.
Brandt, H.	Bousquet, Henry L.
	Bousquet, Herman F.
Berge, van den Jan	Bos, van den Cornelus
Berge, van den Jan Mrs.	Bos, van den C. Mrs.
Berge, van den Adrianus	Bos, van den Cornelus Jr.
Berge, van den Jacobus	Bos, van den Dirk
Berge, van den Pieter	Bos, van den Antje
Berge, van den Willem
Berge, van den Mijntje	Colet, Jacobus
	Colet, Jacobus Mrs.
Blanke, Hein	Colet, Mietje
Blanke, Hein Mrs.	Colet, Kaatje
	Colet, Antje
Bok, de Mrs.	Dam, van Herman
Bok, de Dingeman	Dam, van Antontje
	Dam, van Herman D.
Boot, Arie Jr.
	Elschot, Jan
Boer, den Pieter	Gorkom, van Isaac Jr.
Boer, den P. Mrs.	Gorkom, van I. Mrs.
Boer, den Geertrui	Gorkom, van Maria
Boer, den Susanna	Gorkom, van Antonella
Boer, den Leendert	