

Dec 24 1983

Oliver Bacon, 89

Masonic services for Oliver Bacon, longtime Harlan businessman, were held Tuesday afternoon at Burmeister Funeral Home, Harlan. Burial was in Harlan Cemetery.

Bacon, 89, died Saturday morning at Salem Lutheran nursing home, Elk Horn.

Bacon bought the Bacon Hardware store in Harlan in 1920. He retired in 1981.

Bacon was a longtime member of Harlan City

Council; 60-year member of Parian Lodge 321, Harlan, and of the Harlan Shrine Club and Abu-Bekr Shrine, Sioux City. A pilot in World War I, Bacon had a lifetime membership in the American Legion.

Surviving are his wife, Beulah, of Harlan; son, Max of Harlan; daughter, Ann (Mrs. Charles) Bocken of Honolulu, Hawaii; five grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.