

Saturday, January 5, 1980

Peter Blum

HARLAN — Peter Blum, 87, Westphalia, died Friday at a Harlan hospital.

He was born and raised on a farm near Westphalia. He farmed there until he was 50, when he moved to Westphalia. He was a life long member of St. Boniface Church and a member of the Holy Name Society.

Survivors include his wife, Dora; two sons, Herbert of Harlan and Albert of Cecil, Wis; two daughters, Antilia Wingert of Panama and Bernice Rauterkus of New Richmond, Wis.; 24 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren; two brothers, John of Earling, and Chris Sr. of Panama; and four sisters, Sister Margaret Blum of Omaha, Lena Blum of Earling, Clara Lefebre and Sophia Schoeman, both of Portsmouth.

Funeral services will be Monday at 11 a.m. at St. Boniface Catholic church in Westphalia. The Rev. Robert L. Schoeman will officiate. Burial will be in St. Boniface Cemetery.

Wake services will be tonight at 8:30 and Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan.

BLUM, Peter

Council Bluffs, Iowa
The Nonpareil
Jan 5, 1980 - Saturday