

Lamond E.
Bramer, 59 | 980

JACKSONVILLE —

Lamond Eugene Bramer, a native of Jacksonville, died Sun., July 13 at his residence here. He was the son of Gustave and Dagmar Bramer.

Graveside services for Bramer, 59, were held Thursday afternoon at the Jacksonville Cemetery.

He had resided in Red Oak the past ten years after formerly working with construction crews and with the Skinner Macaroni Co., Omaha.

He is survived by his wife, Velda of Red Oak; mother, Mrs. Dagmar McDermott, Atlantic; three children - Keith and Kathy Bramer, both of Aurora, Colo., and Sherri Bramer of Wahoo, Nebr.; a brother, Dwane D. Bramer of Atlantic; a half-brother, LeRoy McDermott of Leadville, Colo.; and two half-sisters, Mrs. Ruth Anderson and Mrs. Maxine Bladt, both of Atlantic.