

Charles Brown, 29

1-12-81

HARRISVILLE, W. V. — Funeral services for Charles Brown, a former Harlan resident, were held Saturday afternoon (Jan. 10) at the Raiguel Funeral Home here. Interment was in Harrisville Oddfellows Cemetery.

Brown, 29, died Wed., Jan. 7 at his mother's home in Harrisville. Death was due to a self-inflicted gunshot wound, according to the Ritchie County (W. V.) Sheriff's Department.

He had been employed at Rubber Crafters factory of West Virginia, and had been in the Army Reserve some six years.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Ann Brown of Harrisville; three children - Jeanna, Andrew, and Jodi, all of Harlan; two sisters, Mrs. Frances Bohannon of Lothian, Md., and Mrs. Judy Howard of Mt. Airy, Md.; and two brothers, Gary Brown of Algona, Ia., and Jackie Brown of Harrisville.