

WILL BUMAN DIES AFTER HEART ATTACK

Will Buman, 59, prominent Shelby county farmer, died suddenly Monday following a heart attack on his farm in Lincoln township. He was taken to Mercy hospital about 10 a. m. where he passed away at 5:25 p. m. He was conscious to the end and members of his family were with him.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Saturday) at 10 a. m. A son, Ludwig, was in Seoul, Korea, at the time of his father's death. He is flying home.

Services will be held at St. Michael's church in Harlan with Father Leo Gannon saying Solemn High Mass with Father N. F. Gaul of Portsmouth and Father P. J. McStay as deacons and Father Emil Schuman of Avoca as master of ceremonies. Burial will be in the Harlan cemetery. The body is at the Pauley funeral home.

Mr. Buman would have been 60 years of age on June 9. He is survived by his wife, Sidonia, three daughters, Mrs. Louis Bontz of Perry, Mo.; Mrs. Francis Kenkel of Defiance and Norene, at home; three sons, Ludwig, in the army; and Donald and Raymond, at home. One brother, George, and two sisters, Mrs. Carl Rosman, and Miss Anne Buman of Los Angeles, Calif.