

Elizabeth Pace Burnham, 78

WALNUT ^{L 9 80} Services were Friday afternoon here at the Presbyterian Church for Elizabeth Pace Burnham, 78-year-old Walnut resident, who died Tuesday at a Walnut nursing home. Interment was in the Flint Cemetery near Griswold.

She lived most of her life in the Griswold and Walnut areas, moving with her husband, F. Raymond Burnham, to Des Moines in 1958 and returning to Walnut in 1967. She was a Walnut nursing home resident the past two years.

Survivors besides her husband include two sons, Raymond Jr. of Griswold and Harvey of Laurens; two daughters, Caroline (Mrs Robert) Johnk of rural Hancock and Elizabeth Jean (Mrs Randall) Goettsch of Villisca; 16 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

She was a member of the Walnut Presbyterian Church, a 50-year member of the Walnut Eastern Star, a past worthy matron of the Griswold Eastern Star, a member of the Walnut Federated Club, and a former member of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Eastern Star services were held Thursday evening at the Berthusen-Knutson Funeral Home at Walnut.
