

Sat morn. April 10, 1982

Chris Thomsen Christiansen, Jr., 92

Kimballton — Chris Thomsen Christiansen Jr. was born Nov. 12, 1890 one mile east and 1½ miles north of Kimballton, Audubon co. He was one of three children born to Chris H. and Maren Christiansen. He was baptized and confirmed in the Bethany Lutheran church northeast of Kimballton where he was currently a member.

He married Christena Larsen, Jan. 19, 1912. They farmed in Audubon Co. until moving to Kimballton in 1946. Since coming to Kimballton he has worked at the sale barn and done painting.

Two years ago he moved from his home in Kimballton to the Salem Nursing Home in Elk Horn, where he died March 1, 1982. his wife, Christena died April 17, of last year, 1981.

Surviving him are two daughters: Mildred Anderson of Kimballton and Hilda (Mrs Raymond Anderson) of Audubon; three grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. Preceding him in death were his parents, his wife, one brother, who died as an infant and one sister.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, March 3, 1982 in the Immanuel Lutheran church in Kimballton with Pastor Harry Thomsen officiating. Burial was in the Bethany Lutheran cemetery near Kimballton with Mervin Jorgensen, Fred Madsen, Harvey Christensen, Bernard Christensen, Andrew Rudolph and Richard D. Nelson serving as casketbearers.