

MARV DIXON

Charles Marvin Dixon, 58 1-15-81

Charles Marvin Dixon, who owned and operated the Harlan Dairy Queen with his wife for 22 years, died Fri., Jan. 9 on a golf course near Eustis, Fla.

The Dixons had made their winter home in Florida following their retirement from business recently. Dixon was in the Dairy Queen business in Arizona and Ames, Ia., before coming to Harlan in 1958.

Memorial services will be held Fri., Jan. 16, 1:30 p.m., at Burmeister Funeral Home in Harlan. The body was cremated in Florida. Burial will be in the Oak Hill Cemetery, Hancock.

Survivors include his wife, Gene; one son, Charvin, a student at Vermillion, S. D.; one daughter, Pamela (Mrs. Dale) Krueger of Hancock; one brother, Bobby Dean Dixon of Caldwell, Kan.; and one sister, Mrs. Opal I. Perry of Wichita, Kan.