

Clarence Foxhoven

MANILLA — Clarence William Foxhoven was born March 27, 1908 near Defiance, son of John and Anna Kuhl Foxhoven. He attended the rural schools near his home. On Febr. 11, 1929 he married Ida Miller in Defiance. They farmed near Defiance until they moved to Manilla in 1934. He operated a trucking firm as well as a service station and feed store and later was employed by Rasmussen Lumber Co. He was also the operator of the Manning Ready Mix until his retirement three years ago. Clarence became ill in Nov. of 1976. For the past three months he was a resident of the Manilla Manor, where he died Tuesday, March 8, 1977 at age 69 years.

He was preceded in death by his wife - Ida in July 1976, his parents, two grandchildren and one sister - Alvera. Survivors include three daughters - Mrs Otto (Hazel) Rasmussen, Mrs Jack (Mary Ann) Olberding of Manilla and Mrs Charles (Ethel) Defenbaugh of Harlan, ten grandchildren, three great grandchildren, four sisters - Mrs Donald (Lorene) Olson, Mrs Ed (Helen) Knott, Mrs Eddie (Elaine) Meiners, all of Manilla and Mrs Delbert (Leona) Leslie of Co. Bluffs, two brothers - LaVerne Foxhoven of Earling and Howard Foxhoven of Sioux City.

A Mass of the Resurrection was held Thursday, March 10, 1977 at Sacred Heart church in Manilla with Father Robert Fangman, as celebrant. Burial was in Mt. Olivet cemetery near Manilla with Frank Muhlbauer, Harry Saunders, Neal Holmes, Gail Finken, Roy Heiman and Carl Brandenburg serving as pallbearers.