

Virginia G. Franz, 65

OMAHA — Funeral services for Virginia G. Franz of Omaha, a former Harlan resident, were held Tuesday morning (Aug. 10) at the Colonial Chapel here. Graveside services were Tuesday afternoon at Graceland Cemetery in Avoca.

Mrs. Franz, 65, died last weekend at an Omaha hospital, where she had received treatment for the past six months.

She was raised in the Merrill's Grove area in Shelby county, and married Henry Franz in Bethel Baptist Church in Harlan. The Franzes moved to Omaha shortly after marriage. She had been a 40-year member of Calvary Baptist Church in Omaha.

Surviving besides her husband are: sons and daughters-in-law, Eldon and Kristi Franz, Pullman, Wash., and Roger and Nancy Franz, Evanston, Ill.; three grandchildren; and a sister and

FRANZ, Virginia G.
death notice

Harlan Iowa News Advertiser
Sat. Aug. 14, 1982 pg 2A

brother-in-law, Naomi and Roland Olson, Omaha.

Survivors from Shelby county include an uncle, Emmanuel Lansman, a resident of Baptist Memorial Home in Harlan, and a number of cousins.

Funeral services for her mother, Mrs. Minnie Christensen of Omaha, were held in Harlan several months ago.