

Dunlap man, 18, killed at Deloit

1976

DUNLAP — A rural Dunlap man, Gordon Gilbreath, 18, was killed early Thursday in an accident at the intersection of county roads M-40 and E-25 in Deloit.

He was driving a gravel truck owned by Arnold Wendt trucking Co., Denison, when the truck left the roadway on county road M-40 and ended in a drainage ditch.

He was the son of the Tom Gilbreaths, Jr. Funeral arrangements were pending at White Funeral Home, Denison.
