

1983

Former County Auditor Chester Hansen, 78, dies

1983

Chester Hansen of Harlan, who served as Shelby County Auditor from 1942-'58, died Friday morning (Feb. 4) at Myrtue Memorial Hospital in Harlan. He was 78.

Hansen was a long-time member of the Harlan Volunteer Fire Department, and also worked as an auto mechanic for Hansen Motors, a Harlan business owned by his brother, Fred.

Survivors include a daughter, Dorothy (Mrs. Raymond) Errett of Harlan.

Services were pending Friday morning at Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan.

CHESTER HANSEN
(1974 photo)