

Lloyd C. Jensen, 68

Harlan — Lloyd Carl Jensen, son of Carl Albert and Tillie Juhl Jensen was born Nov. 28, 1912 on a farm south of Cuppy's Grove, Shelby county. He was baptized at the Cuppy's Grove Baptist church and attended country school. In 1930, he graduated from Harlan high school and then farmed with his parents until becoming employed by various creameries in this area. In 1963, he moved to Omaha, Neb., where he was employed at several retail stores as a clerk until retiring earlier this year. Mr Jensen was a member of the Eagles club of Omaha. He died at his home in Omaha on Saturday, April 4, 1981, at age 68 years, 4 months and 6 days.

In addition to his parents, Lloyd was preceded in death by one brother, Eldon W. (Bob) Jensen. He is survived by two daughters, Beverly (Mrs Ron) Olsen and Sheila (Mrs Dwight) Lockhart, of Omaha; five grandchildren; two sisters, Loretta (Mrs Frank) Westrope of Santa Monica, Calif. and Ardith Ann (Mrs William) Cockrell of San Diego, Calif.; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Graveside services were held at Harlan cemetery on Monday, April 6, 1981 with Pastor Kenneth P. Alpers of Immanuel Lutheran church in Harlan, officiating. Pauley Funeral Home of Harlan was in charge of the arrangements.
