THE LIFE STORY OF

Elmer Jorgensen

Elmer Jorgensen was born in Jackson twp., Shelby county, on Mar. 14, 1901, son of Peter H. and Mary Julia Rasmussen Jorgensen. He died Nov. 24, 1976 at Myrtue Memorial hospital at age of 75 years, 8 months and 10 days. His early life was spent in rural Audubon and Shelby county areas. In 1920 Elmer and his brother, Harry purchased their first truck and operated Jorgensen Brothers transfer in Fiscus until his brothers death in 1946. In 1947 Elmer was joined in partnership with Leslie Brue and together they farmed, operated a bulk oil station and transfer line in Fiscus for 24 years. Elmer married Corrine Gertrude Bowman on Sept. 12, 1930 in Audubon. To this union two daughters were born, Marlene Perrin of Iowa City, and Sue McCullough of Knoxville. Elmer and Corrine spent their married life in Fiscus until their retirement to Harlan in 1972. He was a member of the First Baptist church of Harlan and a past member of the Merrill's Grove Baptist church for 54 years.

Elmer was preceded in death by his parents, and two brothers -
