Elsie L. Juhl, 80

Elsie Lucille Juhl, the daughter of Emery and Dora Gries Green, was born Feb. 28, 1903, on a farm in Cass twp., Shelby co. She attended country grade school and later Tennant high school, graduating in the class of 1921. After high school, she attended Teachers College in Cedar Falls, for her normal training. She then returned to Shelby co. and taught country school for a few years.

On Feb. 18, 1928, she married Axel Juhl at the Immanuel Lutheran church parsonage in Harlan. Two children were born to this union. After marriage, they lived and farmed in the Harlan and Tennant area for many years. In 1949, they purchased a farm in the Cuppy's Grove area near Prairie Rose Lake. This has been their home since that time.

She was a member of the Immanuel Lutheran church in Harlan. She died as the result of injuries received in an auto accident at Jennie Edmundson Memorial hospital in Co. Bluffs on Tuesday, Aug. 2, 1983 at the age of 80 years, 5 months and 5 days.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by one sister Ruby and two brothers, Grant and Ralph. She is survived by her husband, Axel of Harlan; one daughter, Jeanette (Mrs Eugene) Clayton of Walnut; one son, Jim of Persia; six grandchildren and one great granddaughter; one brother, Claude Green of Spencer; two sisters, Pauline Escher of Harlan and Jennie (Mrs Ralph) McLaughlin of Shelby; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Friday, Aug. 5, 1983 at the Immanuel Lutheran church in Harlan with Pastor Paul R. Olsen, officiating and Pastor J. Harry Thomsen assisting. Burial was in the Harlan cemetery with Carl Peters, George Hansen, Marlow Clemons, Verle Henriksen, Roy L. Christensen and Harold E. Andersen serving as casketbearers.

Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan was in charge of arrangements.
