

Farm mishap fatal to Logan three-year-old

LOGAN — A farm accident April 24 took the life of Carrick Eugene Kiersch, three-year-old son of the Charles Kiersches of Logan.

The youth was riding in the enclosed cab of a tractor operated by Steve Giese at the Fred Giese farm southwest of Logan. The driver had asked the child to move to the back of the cab, and apparently the youth struck the door latch of the cab, falling to the ground. The dual rear wheels then crushed the three-year-old.

1977