

Kevin King, 18

COUNCIL BLUFFS —

Kevin M. King, grandson of Dorothy Krummel of Avoca, was pronounced dead on arrival at a Council Bluffs hospital Sunday morning, following injuries received in a one-car accident east of Council Bluffs.

He was a Lewis Central high school senior and played baseball, basketball and football, lettering in football at an end position.

His sister, Kris, 13, a passenger in the car, was treated at Mercy Hospital for multiple cuts and was released.

Also surviving are his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Donald N. King of Council Bluffs, and one other grandmother, Virginia King of Tipton.

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday), 1 p.m., at Our Savior's Lutheran Church, Council Bluffs. Burial will be at Graceland Cemetery, Avoca.
