

Cynthia Kohlscheen, 30

AVOCA — Cynthia Kohlscheen of Avoca died Thursday of injuries she received in a one-vehicle accident in Tyler, Tex.

Authorities said Mrs. Kohlscheen, 30, was receiving instructions to become a truck driver and was a passenger in a truck driven by her instructor when it left the road. The instructor was also killed in the mishap. Mrs. Kohlscheen was employed by B & J Trucking of Council Bluffs.

She was the daughter of Trinity Lutheran Church Pastor and Mrs. Harold Peterson of Avoca.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday (Sept. 28) at Trinity Lutheran Church in Avoca, with burial in Graceland Cemetery here.

Survivors also include her husband, Doug Kohlscheen of Avoca; daughter, Aletha of Avoca; one brother, Stephen of Gualala, Calif.; three sisters —

KOHLSCHEEN, Cynthia

Harlan (Iowa) News Advertiser
Sat. morn., Sept. 26, 1981

Julia of Manitou Springs, Colo.,
Joy of Des Moines, and Lisa of
Avoca; paternal grandmother,
Mrs. Julia Peterson of Kenyon,
Minn.; and maternal grandparents, the Joe Ericksons of Westby, Wis.