

Harold Koll, 75

1980

Funeral services for Harold Koll, 75, of Harlan were held Friday (March 28) at Harlan St. Michael's Catholic Church with the Rev. Richard G. Wagner officiating. Burial was in St. Joseph Cemetery in Earling.

Koll died Wednesday at an Omaha (Nebr.) care center.

He is survived by a brother, LaVerne of Chicago, Ill.; two sisters, Lillian Koll of Chicago, Ill., and Sister Mary Mildred Koll of Milwaukee, Wis.

Koll was a member of St. Michael's Church and a World War II veteran. He had lived in Harlan the past eight years, and had been a linotype operator at the Harlan, Denison, and Woodbine newspapers, retiring in 1972.

Pauley Funeral Home handled the arrangements in Harlan.
