

Henry J. Lambert, 66

Ottawa, Kans. — Henry Joseph Lambert, was born Oct. 2, 1911 in Welda, Kans., son of Frank and Ella Bennett Lambert. He attended various schools, graduated from a rural school in Anderson county. He later moved to Iowa and on to the west coast to work in the ship yards during the war. After the war, he returned to Iowa and owned and operated his own service station. On June 18, 1955 he married Louise Thompson Knight at Richmond. He continued to run the station, but also owned a fishing resort and grocery store at Hart, Mo., and Mountain Home, Ark. After retiring, Henry and Louise moved to Iowa, then to Ottawa. He died at Ransom Memorial hospital in Ottawa, Kans., on Sunday, Nov. 6, 1977 at age 66 years.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a sister and four brothers. Survivors include his wife, one step-son, Neil Knight, two grandchildren, Neal Pat and Ginger Knight of Ottawa, nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Nov. 8, 1977 at the Farris-Feuerborn Memorial Chapel in Garnett, Kans., with Rev. Clyde Noyce, officiating. Burial was in the Garnett cemetery with Kenneth Thompson, Jim Thompson, Dan Thompson, Larry Thompson, William Lambert and Scott Lambert serving as casket-bearers.
