

Fritz Logeland, 72, local businessman dies Sat

Funeral services and burial for Frithjof (Fritz) Logeland, longtime Harlan photographer and businessman, were Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 10, at the First United Methodist Church in Harlan.

Logeland, 72, died Saturday, Sept. 7, at Myrtue Memorial Hospital here following a long illness.

Logeland, who held a "Master of Photography" title, owned and operated Logeland Color Photography in Harlan for 29 years. He held a fellowship in the American Society of Photographers, is a past president of the Iowa Pro. Photographers Assn. and was a member of the Nebraska and America chapters of Professional Photographers. Local activities included the Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce and Chamber Ambassadors.

He was also a member of Parian Lodge A.F. & A.M. No. 321 and the Abu-Bekr Shrine Temple of Sioux City. In the early '60's, he founded the "Halo Hall of Fame" for Harlan high school, designed to honor outstanding senior students.

He is survived by his wife Imogene; one daughter, Mrs

FRITZ LOGELAND, 72
... services Tuesday

Gary (Linda) Johnson of Scottsdale, Ariz.; three grandchildren; one sister, Mrs Harold (Dagney) Distel, Hutchinson, Minn.; and two brothers, Thomas of Minneapolis, Minn., and Earling of Bismark, N. Dakota.