

Delbert L. Mains, 51

Harlan — Delbert L. Mains, son of Forrest and Garnet Mains, was born Dec. 5, 1928, in Red Oak. He was raised in Red Oak. He lived most of his life in Co. Bluffs and lived in Harlan the last five years. He owed his own insulation business. He served his country from 1948-50. He married Gladys Lawson on June 7, 1949 in Rockport, Mo. He was affiliated with the Jehovah Witness church. He died at his Harlan home on Monday, May 14, 1978 at age 51 years.

Survivors include his wife - Gladys, his children - John Mains of Harlan; Mrs Pam Vanderloo and Mrs Suzan Carman of Co. Bluffs and Mrs Starr Harris of Ault, Colo., eight grandchildren, two sisters - Mrs Jaunita Day of Evergreen, Colo., and Mrs Clara Fiedler of Bremarton, Wash.

Funeral services were held at Selligren Lindell Funeral Home in Red Oak on Wednesday, May 16, 1979 with Rev. Kenneth Eilers of Harlan officiating. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery in Red Oak.
