

Council Bluffs, Ia
Nonpariel
pg 10, Tuesday
August 6, 1935

Alva Olson

HARLAN — Word was received Tuesday of the death of Alva Olson, 76, Irwin. She died Friday at St. Joseph Hospital, Omaha.

She was born on a farm near Irwin. She resided with her parents for most of her life, living in Irwin, Harlan and Manilla. Following her parents' death, she lived with her sister, Lucille, in Harlan for the past 19 years.

Survivors include two brothers, Clarence Olson of Irwin and Elmer

Olson of Newell; four sisters, Mrs. Virgil (Tina) Reid and Mrs. Edward (Dorothy) Plambeck both of Council Bluffs, Mrs. Gilbert (Lillie) Opperman of Underwood, and Mrs. Dyrll (Lucille) McCord of Harlan.

Funeral services were held Monday at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Irwin with the Rev. Tim Zingale officiating. Burial was in Danway Cemetery near Irwin.

Arrangements were handled by Burmeister Funeral Home.