

LeRoy Plagman, 65

LeRoy Christian Plagman, son of Christian John and Meta Fahrenkrog Plagman, was born near Kirkman and died at Myrtue Memorial hospital in Harlan at age 65 years.

He was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran Faith and attended school in Hancock. He moved to Corley and farmed there. On June 26, 1940 he married Margaret Scott at her parents' home near Avoca. They farmed near Corley until 1950 when they moved to their farm near Kimballton where they have lived to the present. He was a member of Ebenezer Lutheran Church west of Audubon and Harlan Lodge No. 267, I.O.O.F. of Harlan.

Preceding him in death were grandson, David Allen Plagman; his parents; brother: Harold Plagman and sister: Velma, Mrs Arthur Lamp.

Survivors include his wife, Margaret, of Kimballton; two sons and daughters-in-law: Harold and Supotra Plagman of Kardena Air Force Base, Japan and Robert and Marcia Plagman, of Audubon; two daughters and sons-in-law: Sylvia and Darrell Christensen of Audubon and Lorene and Richard Keigher of Danforth, Ill.; 11 grandchildren; his brothers and sisters Henry Plagman, Dorothy, Mrs Hugh Mulligan, De-fiance, Irene, Mrs Willard Long, Co. Bluffs, Ada, Mrs Kenneth Myers, Guthrie Center, Alice, Mrs Harley Wyant, St. Joseph, Mo., Christian and Earl Plagman, both of Casey; 41 nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.