

Mabel M. Sojka, 67

HARLAN — Mabel M. Sojka, 67, died in Myrtle Memorial Hospital in Harlan Sunday, Aug. 23, 1978 after a short illness. She married John Sojka on April 23, 1932. She was born in Sumner on May 13, 1911 and resided in Cedar Rapids from 1929 until April of this year when she moved to Harlan. She was a retired employee of Mercy hospital. She was a member of Trinity United Methodist church, the Western Fraternal Life Association and the Senior Citizens club of Cedar Rapids.

She was preceded in death by a son - Tom and her husband John in Feb., 1955. Survivors include a son - Kenneth W. Sojka of Harlan; two sisters - Burnita Kirchmann of Cedar Rapids and Mrs Leonard Kliess of Fredricksburg; eight brothers - Walter of Waterloo, Art of New Hampton, Ray and Arlan of Sumner, Wilbert of Riverside, Calif., Gary of Minneapolis, Minn., James of Omaha and Gene of Cedar Rapids, five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Aug. 30, 1978 in the Janeba-Kuba Funeral Home with Rev. Warren Feller, officiating. Burial was in the Czech National Cemetery in Cedar Rapids.