

Lyle K. Achenbach, 86

HANCOCK - Lyle Kenneth Achenbach was born in Carson June 28, 1903, the son of David and Myrtle Ronk Achenbach. He was one of six children in the family. He attended school in Macedonia.

He married Nellie Young Dec. 19, 1928 at the family home near Hancock. He worked as a linotype operator at the Harrison Printing Co. in Oakland for several years. He later worked in a printing shop in Logan until they moved to Omaha where he worked as a foreman in the Martin Bomber Plant, during WW II. He went to work for the Square Deal Ins. Co. of Des Moines in the early 1940's. They moved to Avoca in 1946 to make their home. They last years he worked as a Field Representative and as an Adjustor for the company, until his retirement in 1984. He died at Mercy Hospital in Co. Bluffs, April 2, 1990 at age 86.

He was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his wife, Nellie; one brother, Howard Achenbach of Oakland; two sisters, Mrs Roland (Norma) Glass also of Oakland and Leta Miller of Omaha, NE.; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Services were held April 5, 1990 at Silver Creek Methodist Church, Hancock with Rev. Douglas Cue, officiating. Burial was in Silver Valley cemetery, Hancock with Ronald Young, Harold Young, Earl Young, Larry Young, Roger Young and Robert Young as casketbearers. Knutson Funeral Home, Avoca, in charge of arrangements.