Angeline A. Ahlgrim, 79

HARLAN — Angeline "Angela" Annunciata Ahlgrim, daughter of Ralph and Catherine (Florio) Fusco was born on March 25, 1908, in Chicago, IL. She died at her home in Harlan on May 1, 1987 at age 79 years, one month and six days. She was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic church in Chicago. After her graduation from high school, she became employed as a bookkeeper for Western Electric in Chicago.

On April 8, 1931, she married Henry Ahlgrim in Chicago, IL. Five children were born to this union. In 1944, the family moved to Lincoln, NE., where he worked for Western Electric. After the death of Henry in 1945, she continued to live in Lincoln where she worked in the Blessed Sacrament school cafeteria for a short time. In 1948, she began working for Western Electric in Lincoln and Millard. She retired from Western Electric in 1963. She also worked as a housemother at St. Elizabeth School of Nursing, and as a housekeeper at St. Theresa's Rectory, both in Lincoln. In Jan. of 1960, she retired and moved to Harlan, and this has been her home since that time. She was a member of St. Michael's Catholic church in Harlan.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by a daughter, Dorothy Futcher in 1978. She is survived by three daughters, Catherine (James) Kalal of Harlan; Gloria (Charles) Horejsi of Missoula, MT. and Mary (Robert) Schwartz of Tustin, CA.; one son, Henry and his wife, Moe Yamamoto of Berkeley, CA.; thirteen grandchildren; one great granddaughter, Dorothy Katherine French; two brothers, Mario Fusco of Lakeview, AR.; and Ralph Fusco of Bloomingdale, MI.; two sisters, Amelia (Howard) Dahl of Dunedin, FL. and Mary (John) Wavra of Orland Park, IL.; a sister-in-law Adeline Ahlgrim of Harlan; nieces and nephews and many other relatives.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated May 5, 1987 at St. Michael's Catholic church in Harlan with Rev. David Polich as the celebrant. Burial was in the Harlan cemetery with John Kalal, Martin Horejsi, Ens. Daniel Kalal, Donald Piersol, Darrell Rouhoff and Henry Siedschlage serving as casketbearers. Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan was in charge of arrangements.
