

Lloyd Albers, 92

May 15, 1914 - Oct. 3, 2006

ELK HORN — Lloyd C. Albers was born May 15, 1914, to Rudolph C. and Lavena (Trimble) Albers near Corley. He attended Corley School and graduated from Harlan High School in 1932 and Iowa State College in 1939.

Lloyd married Evelyn Chelsey in 1940 in Sutherland. He was a county agent for O'Brien County, worked for Production Credit in Guthrie Center and the FHA in Iowa. He began farming in 1942 near Sutherland and later Spirit Lake and Guthrie Center. His Oaknoll Angus farm raised and showed purebred Angus cattle. For many years he groomed cattle for large shows and sales in the USA, Australia and New Zealand. He was superintendent of cattle for the Iowa State Fair from 1956-1964. He was a member of the American Angus Association and a Mason.

Lloyd married Mary Raidt in Shenandoah in 1983 and moved to Weslaco, TX. He died Oct. 3, 2006, at Salem Lutheran Home at age 92.

Lloyd was preceded in death by his parents; wife; son, Warren; and brothers, Edwin and Richard; and sisters, Wilma Nicholai and Margaret Koos. Survivors include his daughters, Cinda (Gary) Guerin of Madison, WI and Julie (Chuck) Nash of Omaha, NE; three granddaughters and three great-grandchildren: brother, Donald of Ft. Worth, TX; and sisters, Dorothy Swope of Massena and Jeanette Kenealy of Harlingen, TX.

Burial will be in the Malvern Cemetery at a later date.
