

Calvin Bartelson, 64

IRWIN - Calvin Eugene Bartelson, son of James and Emma (Petersen) Bartelson, was born in Shelby county on Jan. 6, 1924. He died, after a lengthy illness, at the Bishop Clarkson Hospital in Omaha on June 15, 1988 at age 64 years, five months and nine days. He attended country school, graduated from Harlan High School in 1940 and attended Iowa State College in Ames. After college, he returned to the Irwin area.

On Aug. 24, 1947, he married Lois Wiuff in Harlan. Two children were born to this union. After their marriage, they farmed in the Shelby county area. In 1984, he was elected to the Shelby County board of supervisors; a position he held until the time of his death. He was an active member of the Merrill's Grove Baptist Church where he had been a Sunday school teacher and a deacon. He was also a member of Farm Bureau Association and a past president of the organization.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two brothers,

Forrest and Ronald; and one sister, Sophie. Surviving him are his wife, Lois of Irwin; a son, Dean of Manning; a daughter, Nancy (Mrs Jim) Fredericksen of Des Moines; two grandchildren; one sister, Ruth (Mrs Vic) Julius of Harlan; nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were June 18, 1988 at Pauley Funeral Home with Pastor George J. Spencer of Merrill's Grove Baptist Church officiating, assisted by Rev. Darrell Heidner of Wichita, KS. Burial was in Harlan cemetery with Lyle Knudsen, Paul C. Nelson, Howard Dahkof, Paul M. Nielsen, James L. Nelson and Leonard L. Fiscus as casket bearers.
