

Jill Boje, 57

May 21, 1957 - Dec. 10, 2014

HARLAN — Jill Suzanne Boje was born to Marvin and Geneva (Ramsey) Sailors on May 21, 1957 in Omaha, NE. She went to grade school at Saratoga Elementary and graduated with the Class of 1975 from Benson High School in Omaha.

After graduation, Jill spent some time as a CNA at Little Flower Haven Nursing Home in Earling and Elm Crest Retirement Community in Harlan, but most of her life was spent being a mother to her three daughters: Nikki, Racheal, and Sarah, and being a housewife. Jill had a big heart and was always willing to help whenever and however she could, which endeared her to the residents and patients she cared for. She enjoyed gardening and canning what she grew. She had an amazing green thumb as evidenced by the plant she grew to circle around her house.

While working at the Shell Station, she hit it off with a customer. Three years later, Jill and Brian Boje were married on August 23, 2014. She loved spending time with her grandchildren. Jill was a very strong person and a fighter right up until December 10, 2014, when she lost her battle and died having attained the age of fifty-seven years, six months, and nineteen days.

Jill was preceded in death by her parents, one grandson Calvin, and her brother Jack. She is survived by her husband Brian Boje of Harlan; her daughters Nikki and her husband Justin Hyske of Manteca, CA, Racheal Cue of Harlan, and Sarah and her husband Travis Hillgartner of Harlan; eight grandchildren: Jace, Belva, Gigi, Jaden, Eli, Zeke, Zander and Adriel; sisters Patricia and her husband Lance Andrews of Jacksonville, FL, Linda and her husband Tim Doyle of Otsego, MN, and Dollie and her husband Paul Cramer of Lake George, MN; other family members and many friends.

A memorial service for Jill Boje was officiated by Pastor Donna Ewert on Saturday, December 13, 2014 at 2:00 p.m. at the Pauley Jones Funeral Home in Harlan.
