

Edmund "Ed" Book, 99

Nov. 11, 1915 - April 3, 2015

MISSION, TX — Edmund

"Ed" Charles Book, 99 years old, resided in Mission, TX but was a long-time resident of Harlan for over 68 years. He raised five children with his automotive skills and selling used cars and automotive parts. He was very active in his hobbies of playing music (banjo and drums), horseshoes, bowling and pitching softball. He participated in many Harlan parades with his collection of antique cars and other collectible cars.

Ed is preceded in death by his daughter: JoAnn Book Peters (Cantonment, FL), son: Jim Book (Cantonment, FL); parents: Arthur J. Book and Magdalena Book (Harlan); sisters: Leona Book, Margaret Book (Harlan), Mildred Book Smartt (Council Bluffs); brother: Alfred Book (Harlan). Ed is survived by his wife, Dorothy; sisters: Marilyn Book Fritz (Boone) and Alma Book (Harlan); sons: Sonny "Eddie Jr." Book (Robertsdale, AL), Larry Book (Perdido Keys, FL); daughter: Judy Book Coderre (Anaheim, CA); stepdaughters: JoAnn Hubacek (Fort Collins, CO) and Gloria Dietrich (Mission, TX); 18 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren, 6 great-great-grandchildren.

Memorial services were on April 7, 2015 at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church in Mission, TX. Family and close friends attended.

