

Area residents have received word of the death of Marion Bragg, who died Jan. 30, in Brownville, TX. She had become ill on Christmas day. Services were held at Honeydale Mobile Home Park. Her body was cremated.

Marion was born May 7, 1906 in Cincinnati, OH. At the age of two, she and her family moved to Seymour, where she attended Seymour High School, graduating in 1923.

Marion and her husband Cecil Bragg, moved to Shelby in September, 1948. Cecil was band director at Shelby School until his retirement in May, 1968. Marion was the kindergarten teacher from September 1953 until May 1968.

After retirement, they spent their summers at their lakeside home near Alexandria, MN. Winters were spent in Brownville, TX. Marion spent her retirement years painting pictures and helping those who needed help with daily living.
