

Troy Chickering, 26

Sept. 1, 1965 — Nov. 2, 1991

HARLAN — Troy Eugene Chickering the son of Eugene and Marlene (Fuelling) Chickering was born Sept. 1, 1965, at Fairbault, MN. He died Nov. 2, 1991 at the Marian Health Center in Sioux City, as the result of a motor vehicle accident Oct. 10, 1991, near Dickens, IA., at age 26 years, two months and one day.

He attended elementary school at Brownsdale, MN., before moving with his family to Harlan. He graduated from Harlan Community High School in 1984, and then attended Iowa State College in Ames. Even during high school and college, he always had a job working at Earl May Garden Center in both Harlan and Ames. In 1986, he began working in road construction for Sta-Bilt Construction Company in Harlan, and in 1988, he became employed at Western Engineering in Harlan. He had just recently moved to Dickens, to continue his employment there with Western Engineering.

He is survived by his parents, Eugene and Marlene Chickering of Harlan; two brothers, Bret of Harlan and Layne of Oklahoma City, OK.; four sisters, Rhonda (Robert) Beachboard of Reno, NV.; Connie (Rodney) Stevens of Braddyville; Wendy Chickering of San Diego, CA.; and Julie Chickering of Lynwood, WA.; his grandparents, Sidney (Ila) Chickering and Carlton (Gretchen) Fuelling, all of Monona; and his fiance Peggy Bubke and her son, Kaleb of Dickens and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Nov. 5, 1991 at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Harlan with Pastor Otto A. Zwanziger, officiating. Burial was in the Harlan cemetery with John Poepsel, Andy Baldwin and Curtis Baldwin, honorary casketbearers. Casketbearers were Steve Ozbun, Keith Kimmen, Jim Henschel, Brad A. Johnson, Michael Petsche and Howard A. Darnell. Pauley Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
