

Harlan, Iowa Tribune, Tuesday 14 May 2013, page 6-A

L. Jean Caudill, 88

1924 - 2013

BLAIR, NE — After a long illness, L. Jean Caudill passed away peacefully on May 6, 2013. She was 88 years old.

Jean was a former resident of Harlan and an active participant in the community. She was a woman of great intelligence, and she enjoyed a lifelong pursuit of continuing education. She was an avid reader, traveler, linguist and student. She was a loving wife, beloved mother, a devoted grandmother, and a loyal Hawkeye fan.

Jean was predeceased by her husband, Dr. H.F. Caudill. She is survived by three sisters, three daughters, a son, and three grandchildren.

The family will hold a private memorial service later this year when they will gather to honor Jean's life. Others wishing to honor her memory are encouraged to donate to the charity of their choice in her name.

