

Frances M. Cole, 75 ✓

March 18, 1921 - Jan. 2, 1997

GLENWOOD - Frances M. Cole, 75, formerly of Glenwood died Jan. 2, 1997 at the Risen Son Christian Village in Co. Bluffs. She was the daughter of Hugh and Carrie (Smith) Clark born March 18, 1921 in Creston. She graduated from Creston High School.

After her first husband Quentin Holiday died in 1955 she married Martin Cole at Co. Bluffs in 1960.

She is preceded in death by her parents, her husbands; Quentin Holiday in 1955 and Martin Cole in 1989 and a son Timothy Cole, and sisters; Lois Ruggles and Goldie Armstrong. She is survived by five daughters; Ethel Filkins (Lyle) of Grant, Barbara Miller (Jim) of Omaha, Doris Boyce (Jon) of Harlan, Mary Mayberry (Tim) of Glenwood, and Mary (Harmon (Jim) of Nashville, TN, and four sons; Wayne Holiday (Marianne) of Auburn, CA, Ralph Holiday (Debby) of Buena Park, CA, Ross Holiday (Dee) of Stockton, CA and David Scott of Seattle, WA, 23 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, two sisters; Ruth Holiday of Tekamah, NE and Vivian Killman of Creston.

Funeral services were held Jan. 4, 1997 at the Raynor-Hardiman Funeral Home in Glenwood. Burial was in the Glenwood cemetery with Pastor Jim Cunningham officiating.