Hunter Dahlof

Funeral services for Hunter B. Dahlof of Walnut, will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan with Tom Gaer officiating. Burial will be in Harlan Cemetery.

Dahlof, 18, died Monday following an accident at work.

He was a member of the Redline Church of Christ, president of the Boots and Saddle 4-H Club and was formerly the vice-president of the Future Farmers of America.

Dahlof graduated with the 1984 class of Harlan High School. He was a member of the stage band in junior high and in high school, and was in the marching and concert bands in high school. He was also in the chorus in all but his last semester of high school.

Dahlof was awarded the Iowa Farmers Degree by the Iowa Chapter of F.F.F. this spring. He had attended freshmen orientation at Northwest Missouri State University in Maryville.

Survivors are his parents, Howard and Barbara Dahlof of Walnut; two sisters, Ila Jean of Colorado Springs, Colo. and Rosalie Carlson of Kirkman; one maternal grandmother.
