

Jack B. Dixon, 81

July 31, 1913 - July 4, 1995

Sebastopol, CA - Jack B. Dixon was born July 31, 1913. He died July 4, 1995. Jack was born at El Paso, TX and later moved with his family to Sioux City.

April 13, 1936 he married Geraldine Kaufman of Westphalia. After a few years in Sioux city they moved to San Francisco, CA. He was a member of the Ship Builders Union working at Kaiser, in Vancouver, WA, HI, AK, Mare Island and Hunters Point. In 1954 the family moved to their present home in Sebastopol, CA. Jack was the last surviving member of his family. He enjoyed collecting Civil War memorabilia in which his great grandfather fought at the age of 16. He had acquired many items among them a flute and various items from the era.

Besides his parents and brother, Judge Dixon, he was preceded in death by a son, Curtiss, in 1993. he is survived by his wife "Geri", his son, Jack E. Dixon, of San Francisco, CA; 2 grandsons; also by brothers and sisters-in-law, Rosalie Kaufman, Jerome (Delores) Kaufman of Harlan, Marcella Kaufman, Marie K. Monahan, Emil and (Nottie) Gross, Alban and Lavina Gross all of Earling, Herb and (Alice) Wegner of Panama and many nieces and nephews. Burial was July 7, 1995 at Pleasant Hill Cemetery Sebastopol, CA with Rev. Father George Azizipastor at S. Sebastin Catholic Church officiating.