

Jeanette Dunn, 87

April 2, 1916 - March 24, 2004

DENVER, CO – Caroline "Jeanette" Dunn, the daughter of Peter and Lona Madson, was born April 2, 1916, in rural Harlan. She attended Fairview Township Country School and then Harlan Community High School. She was a member of the graduating class of 1934. As a young adult, she joined the Altamont Baptist Church. Upon graduation, Jeanette began teaching at Cuppy's Grove Country School.

Dec. 22, 1937, she married Jerome Dunn on her parents' farm. After their marriage, they lived in Cuppy's Grove and farmed there until 1946 when they moved to Harlan. After the death of her husband, Jerome, April 7, 1967, Jeanette continued to live in Harlan. She was employed at Farner's Store for several years and later at the Harlan Municipal Utilities. Jeanette retired in 1982 and continued to live in Harlan until February 2002, when she became a resident of Caley Ridge Assisted Living in Denver, CO. In February of 2004, she moved to Shalom Park Care Center in Denver, CO. Jeanette was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Harlan. She died March 24, 2004, at Shalom Park Care Center in Denver, CO, at age 87 years, 11 months and 22 days.

Jeanette was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Jerome; and a brother, Paul; and a sister, Virginia. Survivors include her children, Jay Dunn (Jean) of Centennial, CO; Nancy Lytle of Centennial, CO; Alan Dunn (Paulette) of Littleton, CO; six grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; two step grandchildren; six step great-grandchildren; her sister, Marge Custer of Harlan; her brother, Philip Madson (Pearl) of Harlan; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held March 29, 2004, at Pauley Jones Funeral Home with Rev. Ed Frank officiating. Burial was in the Harlan Cemetery with Larry Madson, Bob Appleby, Steve Lytle, Justin Lytle, Douglas Lytle and Jerry Dunn casket bearers.
