

Harlan, Iowa, Tribune, Tuesday, August 20, 2002, Page 5-A

Dorothy "Sue" Guyer, 72

April 24, 1930 – July 31, 2002

HANCOCK – Dorothy "Sue" Mae Guyer was born on the William Vogt farm in Pleasant Township, Pottawattamie County, April 24, 1930, daughter of Edward and Linda Vogt Bintz, and one of five children in the family. She attended country school and the Shelby school. She graduated from the Hancock High School with the Class of 1948. She taught country school west of Hancock for a few years. She worked at the Hancock Branch of the Avoca State Bank, as the Hancock City Clerk, at the telephone switchboard and as a secretary at the Hancock Fertilizer Company. She retired from work in 1992. She was the mother of five children, Bobette, Colleen, Byron, Julie and Sherri. She married Gary Guyer Nov. 10, 1978. She was a charter member of the Hancock Legion Auxiliary. She died at Jennie Edmundson Hospital in Council Bluffs, July 31, 2002, at age 72 years, three months and seven days.

Sue was preceded in death by her parents; her first husband, Robert Hobson; her brother, Howard Bintz, and sister, Lois Zobrist. She is survived by her husband, Gary Guyer of Hancock; children, Bobette (Dan) Pattee of Frenchtown, MT; Colleen (Royce) Weirich of Hancock; Byron Hobson (Barbara) of Battle Creek, MI; Julie (Byron) Petry of Council Bluffs and Sherri Claussen of Avoca; 13 grandchildren; eight great grandchildren; sister, Ruth Troll of Walnut; brother, Willard Bintz (Janet) of Hancock; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Memorial services were held Aug. 4, 2002, at the United Methodist Church in Hancock, with Rev. Dr. Judy Flanegin officiating. Inurnment was in the Oak Hill Cemetery, Hancock. Knutson Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

-----