

Marvin "Butch" Hampton, 65

July 9, 1930 - Nov. 8, 1995

Luverne, MN - Marvin Ray "Butch" Hampton was born July 9, 1930 in Somers, IA to Oral and Eva (Lasater) Hampton. He was raised on a farm near Barnum and graduated from Barnum High School. He later attended Morningside College in Sioux City for 2 years, majoring in History.

Aug. 21, 1953 he married Maxine L. Peters at St. John's Lutheran Church in Lizard Township near Palmer. The couple made their home on the family farm near Barnum from 1953 to 1969. They moved to Creston and lived there 5 years. He was employed with the Northrup King Seed Corn Company. They moved to Harlan where he worked as a District Sales Manager for Funk's G International Seed Corn. In Aug. of 1985 they transferred to Luverne, MN. She died Dec. 11, 1986. He retired from Funk's G in 1991. He was a member of Grace Lutheran Church in Luverne. He died at age 65 Nov. 8, 1995 at the Luverne Community Hospital.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife, Maxine, and a brother, Harold. He is survived by 2 sons, Randal (Candice) of Garner and Roger of CO; 3 daughters, Cynthia (James) Ladd of Luverne; Sharon (Michael) Motta of Olathe, KS and Nancy (David) Glod of Pittsburgh, PA; 13 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren; and a brother, Robert (Mildred) of Columbia, MO.

Funeral services were held Nov. 11, 1995 at Grace Lutheran Church in Luverne, MN with Reverend Dell Sanderson officiating. Burial was in the Maplewood Cemetery in Luverne.