

pg 6

Claude Franklin Havick, 91

Sept. 30, 1903 - June 15, 1995

Mapleton - Claude Franklin Havick, Sr. was born September 30, 1903 at Tennant, son of Franklin and Essie (Bryan) Havick. He graduated from Tennant Consolidated High School in 1921.

August 17, 1941 he married Inez Stephenson in Omaha. He farmed in the Harlan and Denison vicinity and then moved to a farm near Mapleton in 1954. In 1987 they moved into Mapleton. He was a member of the St. John's United Methodist Church in Mapleton, where he served on the church board. He was also a member of the Farm Bureau and the Berne Co-op. He died June 15, 1995 at the Mapleton Nursing Home at age 91 years, 8 months and 15 days.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a granddaughter, Lisa Nelson; three sisters and four brothers, Gladys Klitgaard, Esther Davis, Mabel Davis, Harold, Glenn, Elmer and Everett Havick. Survivors include his wife, Inez; two sons, Claude, Jr. (Joy) Havick of Casey and Curtis (Dee) Havick of Mapleton; three daughters, twins, Joanne (Lirwood) Fredricksen of Chicago, IL and Barbara (Richard) Philipson of Pequot Lake, MN and Cheryl Bryan of Albuquerque, NM; a stepson, Eugene (Joann) Nelson of Whittier, CA; a brother, Franklin (Evelyn) Havick of Oakland; a sister, Helen Christensen of Harlan; 21 grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held June 19, 1995 at the First United Methodist Church, Harlan with Pastor Stephen Root officiating. Burial was in the Harlan Cemetery. Casket bearers were Bob Christensen, Kenneth Havick, Allan Havick, Frank Havick, David Christensen, Bruce Havick and Alfred Havick. Walter-Armstrong Funeral Home, Mapleton in charge of arrangements.