

Shirley Ann Hemminger, 66

Jan. 9, 1930 - Oct. 4, 1996

HARLAN - Shirley Ann Hemminger, daughter of Howard and Josephine (Pelley) Crane, was born Jan. 9, 1930, in Denison. She attended Denison Public Schools through the sixth grade. She then worked as a housekeeper in Denison area homes.

June 18, 1949, she married Harvey Hemminger in Denison. The couple lived in Harlan and Atlantic before moving to Littleton, CO, where they lived for ten years. They returned to Harlan in 1970. She again worked as a housekeeper in Harlan homes until 1987, when heart problems caused her retirement. She was a member of Christ's Church in Harlan. She died Oct. 4, 1996, at Myrtue Memorial Hospital at age 66 years, eight months and 25 days.

Preceding her in death were her parents; two sisters, Pat Kruse and Phyllis Reis; and one brother, Bob Crane. Survivors include her husband, Harvey Hemminger of Harlan; one daughter, Barbara Smith of Omaha, NE; one son, Craig Hemminger of Indianapolis, IN; one sister, Mary Ladwig of Ida Grove; one brother, Howard Crane of Sioux Falls, SD and one granddaughter.

No services were held, as she had chosen to donate her body to the Creighton University School of Medicine in Omaha. Burmeister Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
