

Margaret Louise Hollander, 75

July 17, 1917 — March 7, 1993

DENISON — Margaret Louise Hollander was born July 17, 1917, daughter of William and Johanna Weller Beerman. She died March 7, 1993, at the Crawford County Memorial Hospital in Denison, at age 75 years. She was born on a farm in Washington Twp., where she grew up. She received her education in a rural school near her home and was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith. She subsequently worked on the family farm with her family and later worked for other families as needed and at Cronk's Cafe.

Oct. 18, 1940, she married Rudy Hollander at the Lutheran Parsonage in Denison and were blessed with the birth of three children. The couple made their home in the region where they worked for various farmers until 1943 when they moved to the home farm. They remained there until 1988 when they retired and moved to Denison. In Oct. of 1990, they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. She was a member of Zion Lutheran Church in Denison and was an active member of their Ladies Aid. She was also a member of the Sunshine Club and the Buck Grove Community Club. In June of 1991 she suffered a stroke and subsequently moved to the Denison Care Center.

She was preceded in death by one infant daughter, Eileen in 1950; her parents and step-father, Willie Nulle; and one sister, Edna Bandow in 1984. Survivors include her husband, Rudy of Manilla; one son, Duane (Eunice) of Denison; and one daughter, Bonnie Zimmerman (John) of Westphalia; 7 grandchildren; 1 great-grandchild; 1 sister, Mildred (Leon) Neubauer of Schleswig and 1 brother-in-law, Edward Bandow of Denison.

Funeral services were held March 9, 1993 at the Zion Lutheran Church in Denison with Pastor Kurt Kaiser officiating. Burial was in the Zion Lutheran cemetery in Denison. Honorary casketbearers were: Bryan Hollander, Eileen Hollander, Brad Zimmerman, Sarah Zimmerman, David Hollander, Raechel Hollander, Danny Zimmerman, Julie Zimmerman. Casketbearers were Merlin Brockmann, Harvey Neuman, Clarence Denker, Kevin Neubauer, Donald Bandow, and Harold Voegel. Huebner & Sons Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
